

Disability Support

Do you consider yourself to have a disability or long-term condition that could affect your ability to attend class and successfully complete this course? (E.g.: A learning disability, mental health condition, hearing loss, low vision, colour blindness, other medical condition.)

Yes – please specify (see below for requirements)

No

If you answered Yes, please briefly describe your condition in the space provided above and attach supporting documentation as required below. Include any recommendations that will optimize your learning experience and ensure your safety and well-being.

If you answered No but do have an ongoing condition that may affect your ability to complete your studies, please be aware we will be unable to make allowances or reasonable adjustments if it is disclosed later.

If you answer No at the time of enrolment but then you or someone you are a Carer for experiences the sudden onset of an illness or injury it is important to contact your state Education Support Officer (ESO) or the Gem-Ed Administration Officer (GEAO) as soon as possible to discuss your situation.

Supporting documentation must be completed by a registered health professional in the field relating to the disability or health condition.

- Must include information on your condition or a diagnosis
- Describe how your study may be affected by your condition/ situation
- Detail whether your condition is permanent, ongoing, or temporary (and if temporary, the likely timeframe for your recovery)
- Include a provider number and/or stamp
- Be dated and signed by the practitioner
- Be in English (or be translated by an accredited translator)

Supporting documentation for a Learning disability

Supporting documentation for a Learning Disability must be a current (written within the past three years) report from a psychologist or other qualified professional, trained in administering standardized tests and assessing learning disabilities and not from a General Practitioner.

Please note that as a not for profit, private training body the GAA is limited in our resources and thus our ability to provide support for any and all disabilities. Further, the inherent nature of our courses demands a certain level of physical and mental ability. If you are unsure and wish to discuss your individual situation, please contact the Gem-Ed Administration Officer (GEAO) on 0412 023 548 or 1300 436 338 or email on learn@gem.org.au

Please note that this information will be shared as appropriate with Gem-Ed teaching and Education support staff. Any information disclosed will be treated with respect and discretion.

Please sign to acknowledge you have read and understood the above Terms and Conditions relating to Disability Support.

Diploma in Diamond Technology : MODULE : ADVANCED PRACTICAL DIAMOND GRADING

GAA offers 3 interrelated diamond modules:

- Practical Diamond Grading (PDG)
- Advanced Practical Diamond Grading (APDG)
- Diamond Tech Theory (DTT)

A certificate of competency is awarded at the successful completion of each of the above modules.

Practical Diamond Grading may be undertaken on its own, however, completion of prior gemmological studies is highly recommended. (Please contact GemEd if you are unsure whether you have the requisite knowledge and experience with stone handling and use of basic gemmological equipment.)

Advanced Practical Diamond Grading requires successful prior completion of GAA's Practical Diamond Grading module. This is a formal pre-requisite. In rare cases, GemEd may waive this pre-requisite, on a case by case basis, but there are no guarantees.

To be awarded the GAA Diploma in Diamond Technology, the Diamond Tech Theory module (DTT) must also be successfully completed.

1. It is highly recommended that the 3 GAA diamond modules are undertaken in the order listed above, namely, PDG, then APDG then DTT. Please contact GemEd if you cannot comply with this recommendation.
2. Under normal circumstances, the three diamond modules must be successfully completed within a period of five (5) years.
3. As each module may only be offered if minimum student numbers are attained in the relevant state, and in order to comply with the 5 year completion condition above, a student may have to enrol in APDG and/or DTT in another state. In that case, transport and accommodation will be at the student's own expense. For Diamond Tech Theory only, an alternative may be to enrol in the DTT module in another state that offers this module online (via Google Meet, at no additional charge).
4. Under certain conditions, exceptions to the 5 year rule may be made, at the discretion of GemEd, on a case-by-case basis, but there are no guarantees. Please contact GemEd if you have concerns regarding these conditions, before submitting your enrolment form.

This form is intended only for enrolment into GAA's Advanced Practical Diamond Grading module (APDG).

Terms and Conditions for Enrolment, Payment of Fees and for Refund of Fees
(Please read and sign below)

The policy below relates to enrolment and attendance in class:

Attendance of any class requires that the student be formally enrolled.

Enrolment is completed and the student is formally enrolled only when the student, or payer, has paid at least $500 plus the membership fee if applicable, and the funds have been received by Gem-Ed.

There can be no attendance at any class or tuition until this is done.

The policy below relates to payment of course fees:

By signing this form, you (the payer) agree to make the payments in line with the selected option and understand that if fees become overdue the student’s tuition and assessment (including access to Moodle, attendance at face-to-face and online classes and forums, and examinations) may be suspended, and outstanding debts may be referred to a debt collection agency.

Further, the student will be ineligible to sit exams or receive results until all outstanding amounts are paid. Please note that any detrimental effect on the student’s learning and assessment as a result of any or all of these measures will not constitute grounds for special consideration or any type of appeal.

If you are uncertain whether you can ensure that payments are made in line with your chosen option, please contact the Gem-Ed Admin officer on 0412 023 548 or 1300 436 338 or by email on learn@gem.org.au to discuss the matter.

The policy below relates to a student withdrawing from a course and requesting a refund:

Granting of refunds is not automatic and is subject to the agreement of the Chair and/or Treasurer of Gem-Ed Australia and/or the Gem-Ed Committee.

Refunds will be considered under the following conditions:

- All refund requests must be made in writing using the “Gem-Ed Course Withdrawal Form” by the student or payer and should be forwarded to the State Education Support Officer (ESO) and Gem-Ed Administration Officer (GEO) at learn@gem.org.au
- The administration fee of $300 is non-refundable under any circumstances.
- Where an application to withdraw from the course is made prior to course commencement, the student forfeits the $300 administration fee. Any monies paid in excess of the Administration Fee is refunded.
- Request for refund after the course has commenced : no refund of course fees.
- To maintain our high quality and keep the cost of tuition as low as possible, class sizes are strictly regulated. Should there not be sufficient numbers of students to run the Advanced Practical Diamond Grading course, Gem-Ed Australia reserves the right to cancel the course within 2 weeks of the advertised commencement date and a full refund of monies paid will be provided.
- Course fees that are ineligible for refund cannot be used as a credit towards any other course offered by Gem-Ed.

TRAVEL POLICY

In the event that the student needs to book flights and/or accommodation in order to participate in this course, it is strongly advised that the student purchases travel insurance and book fares with full flexibility to change dates or receive a refund in the event that the course is cancelled due to insufficient student numbers, as no compensation for students out of pocket expenses will be given.

Any application for a refund outside of these Terms and Conditions must be presented in writing to the committee of Gem-Ed Australia for consideration. While Gem-Ed Australia will endeavor to consider any request as promptly as possible, considerations are subject to the meeting schedule of Gem-Ed Australia. Please allow up to an 8-week hiatus between the time of the initial request, and a reply from Gem-Ed Australia.

Please sign to acknowledge you have read and understood the above Terms and Conditions relating to enrolment, payment of fees and fee refunds.

- Access the information GAA/Gem-Ed holds about them.
- Have their complaints dealt with fairly, promptly, confidentially and without retribution.
- Make appeals about procedural and assessment decisions.
- Be given clear and accurate information about their course, training and assessment arrangements and their progress.
- Access the support they need to effectively participate in their training program.
- Provide feedback to Gem-Ed and GAA on the client services, training, assessment, and support services they receive.

Attachment 2

GAA Code of Ethics

Taken from the GAA Federal Resolutions Section

4: Code of Ethics

4.1 The code of ethics shall apply to all Fellows and State Association members.

4.2 The conduct of Fellows and State Association members is to be such as to uphold the reputation of the G.A.A. Their responsibility to the community is to be of paramount importance.

4.3 No state association member is to conduct himself in a manner that creates disharmony or is detrimental to the reputation of the GAA, its MEMBERS [State Divisions], sub-committees, officers or members of the State Divisions.

4.4 Fellows and State Association members shall avoid, and discourage, unsubstantiated statements, misleading descriptions (of gems, synthetic and imitation material), and seek to present correct information with truth and impartiality.

4.5 Fellows and State Association members should endeavor to explain fully to members of the public and those untrained in Gemmology, the meaning and importance of Gemmological terms and names, especially where these relate to a financial transaction (i.e. buying and selling of gem materials).

4.6 Fellows and State Association members may not use, for personal gain, nor disclose, confidential information arising out of work performed for their client or employer. They should not, deliberately or carelessly, express professional opinions likely to adversely affect the reputation, business or prospects of other Fellows, or members of the Association.

4.7 If a Fellow or State Association member seriously believes another Fellow or State Association member to be guilty of unethical, illegal or unfair practice, it is his duty to present such information to the Federal Council for consideration; after notifying the other Fellow or State Association member involved in an appropriate manner.

4.8 Fellows and State Association members, when engaged in Gemmology, must remain impartial and unbiased at all times and not place themselves under any obligation by means of substantial favors.
