Terms and Conditions for Enrolment, Payment of Fees and for Deferrals or Refund of Fees (Please read and sign below)

The policy below relates to enrolment and attendance in class:

Attendance of any class requires that the student be formally enrolled.

Enrolment is completed and the student is formally enrolled only when the student, or payer, has paid at least $1,500 plus the membership fee if applicable, and the funds have been received by Gem-Ed.
There can be no attendance at any class or tuition until this is done.

The policy below relates to payment of course fees:

By signing this form, you (the payer) agree to make the payments in line with the selected option and understand that if fees become overdue the student's tuition and assessment (including access to Moodle, attendance at face-to-face and online classes and forums, and examinations) may be suspended, and outstanding debts may be referred to a debt collection agency.

Further, the student will be ineligible to sit exams or receive results until all outstanding amounts are paid. Please note that any detrimental effect on the student's learning and assessment as a result of any or all of these measures will not constitute grounds for special consideration or any type of appeal.

If you are uncertain whether you can ensure that payments are made in line with your chosen option, please contact the Gem-Ed Admin officer on 0412 023 548 or 1300 436 338 or by email on learn@gem.org.au to discuss the matter.

The policy below relates to a student withdrawing from a course and requesting a refund:
Granting of refunds is not automatic and is subject to the agreement of the Chair and/or Treasurer of Gem-Ed Australia and/or the Gem-Ed Committee.
Refunds will be considered under the following conditions:

1. All refund requests must be made in writing using the "Gem-Ed Course Withdrawal Form" by the student or payer and should be forwarded to the Gem-Ed Administration Officer (GEAO) at learn@gem.org.au
2. The administration fee of $500 is non-refundable under any circumstances.
3. Where an application to withdraw from the course is made before 31st March 2026 (17th March for Intensive), the student or payer is entitled to a full refund of all monies paid, less the non-refundable administration fee of $500 or the membership fee. Or monies paid for items received such as the Gem Tool Kit and Books.
4. Please note: the book fee of $200 is non-refundable once the books have been received by the student.
5. Where an application to withdraw from the course is made AFTER 31st March 2026 (17th March for Intensive) but before the CENSUS date, the student or payer is liable for a minimum of $2,500 in tuition fees and is NOT entitled to a refund of the laboratory fee of $300, book fee of $200 or Admin fee of $500. i.e. The student or payee is liable for a total of $3,500.
6. Refund requests made after the 31st of March 2026, but before the CENSUS date for the mode the student is enrolled in will only be eligible for a refund of any tuition fees paid in excess of the $2,500 minimum.
   a. Census date for In-House and Flexi is 24th April 2026
   b. Census date for Intensive Gem 1 is 3rd April 2026
7. The payer is liable for the balance of all outstanding fees after the census date for the mode the student is enrolled in and is not eligible for a refund of any portion of the fees after this date.
8. Course fees that are ineligible for refund cannot be used as a credit towards any other course offered by Gem-Ed.

The policy below relates to a student wishing to defer their studies;

1. Prior to the census date the above rules apply to any credit to be applied for a deferring student.
2. After census date the amount of money to be held in credit depends on the date at which the student requests to defer.
3. After the census date the following reduction in credit of tuition fees will apply; May 37.5%, June 50%, July 62.5%, August 75%, September 87.5%, October 100%

Any application for a refund or credit outside of these Terms and Conditions must be presented in writing to the committee of Gem-Ed Australia for consideration. While Gem-Ed Australia will endeavor to consider any request as promptly as possible, considerations are subject to the meeting schedule of Gem-Ed Australia. Please allow up to an 8-week hiatus between the time of the initial request, and a reply from Gem-Ed Australia.

Please sign to acknowledge you have read and understood the above Terms and Conditions relating to enrolment, payment of fees and fee refunds.

Student Code of Conduct

Students' Responsibilities

All students, throughout their training and involvement with Gem-Ed Australia, are expected to:

- Treat all people with fairness and respect and not do anything that could offend, embarrass or threaten others.
- Not harass, victimize, discriminate against or disrupt others.
- Treat all others and their property with respect.
- Respect the opinions and backgrounds of others.
- Follow all safety policies and procedures as directed by staff.
- Report any perceived safety risks as they become known.
- Attend training courses and other Gem-Ed activities in a fit and proper state and not be under the influence of alcohol or other drugs
- Not bring onto the premises any illegal substances
- Not bring into any premises being used for training purposes, any articles or items that may threaten the safety of self or others.
- Refrain from smoking at training venues and on the premises of Gem-Ed Australia.
- Notify Gem-Ed Australia if any of their personal or contact details change.
- Provide relevant and accurate information to Gem-Ed Australia in a timely manner.
- Approach their course with due personal commitment and integrity.
- Be attentive and professional; refrain from talking to other students during lectures and practicals, and refrain from all other activities that may be disruptive to teachers and fellow students. Gem-Ed Australia permits Teachers the right to eject you from class for such behaviour.
- Turn off mobile phones during classes.
- Complete all assessment tasks, learning activities and assignments honestly and without plagiarism.
- Hand in all assessment tasks, workbooks, and other evidence of their work with a completed and signed cover sheet.
- Progress steadily through their course in line with their training plan.
- Prepare appropriately for all assessment tasks, visits and training sessions.
- Notify Gem-Ed Australia if any difficulties arise as part of their involvement in the program.
- Notify Gem-Ed Australia if they are unable to attend a visit or training session for any reason at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the commencement of the activity.
- Make payments for their training within agreed time frames.

Students are advised that engaging in a business related activity or promotion during class time or at any other time on GAA premises is strictly prohibited.

Any breach of the student code of conduct may result in disciplinary action being taken by the management committee of the state branch where the student is enrolled, or expulsion from the course.

All students have the right to:

- Be treated fairly and with respect by all students and staff.
- Not be harassed, victimized, or discriminated against on any basis.
- Learn in a supportive environment which is free from harassment, discrimination, and victimization.
- Learn in a healthy and safe environment where the risks to personal health and safety are managed and minimized.
- Have their personal details and records kept private and secure according to our Privacy and Personal Information Policy.
- Access the information GAA/Gem-Ed holds about them.
- Have their complaints dealt with fairly, promptly, confidentially and without retribution.
- Make appeals about procedural and assessment decisions.
- Be given clear and accurate information about their course, training and assessment arrangements and their progress.
- Access the support they need to effectively participate in their training program.
- Provide feedback to Gem-Ed and GAA on the client services, training, assessment, and support services they receive.

Attachment 2

GAA Code of Ethics and Conduct

1. The Code of Ethics and Conduct shall apply to all Fellows and State Association members of the Gemmological Association of Australia.

2. The ethics and conduct of Fellows and State Association members is to be such as to uphold the reputation of the GAA. Their responsibility to the consumers is to be of paramount importance.

3. No state association member is to conduct themself in a manner that creates disharmony or is detrimental to the reputation of the GAA, its State Associations, sub-committees, officers or members of the State Divisions.

4. Fellows and State Association members shall avoid, and discourage, unsubstantiated statements, misleading descriptions (of gems, synthetic and imitation material), and seek to present correct information with truth and impartiality.

5. Fellows and State Association members shall endeavour to explain fully, to members of the public, consumers and those untrained in Gemmology, the meaning and importance of gemmological terms and names, especially where these relate to a financial transaction (i.e. buying and selling of gem materials).

6. Fellows and State Association members may not use, for personal gain, nor disclose, confidential information arising out of work performed for their client or employer. They should not, deliberately or carelessly, express professional opinions likely to adversely affect the reputation, business or prospects of other Fellows, or members of the Association.

7. If a Fellow or State Association member seriously believes another Fellow or State Association member to be guilty of unethical, illegal or unfair practice, it is their duty to present such information to the Federal Council for consideration; after notifying the other Fellow or State Association member involved in an appropriate manner.

8. Fellows and State Association members, when engaged in Gemmology, must remain impartial and unbiased at all times and not place themselves under any obligation by means of substantial favours.

9. Failure to abide by the Code will lead to loss of membership of GAA, and for Fellows, loss of Fellowship, and in the event of continued non-compliance, will lead to legal action.

Bylaws of the Federal Council, Appendix B September 2025
